

Indra's Cybersecurity chair

Indra's Cybersecurity chair is the result of a collaboration agreement between Universidad Carlos III de Madrid (UC3M) and Indra Sistemas S.A.. Its purpose is to foster research and education in topics related to cybersecurity and cyberintelligence.

The chair is bound to UC3M's Computer Science and Engineering Department through its COSEC Lab (Computer Security Laboratory). The agreement is intended to last for four years, which can be successively renewed for the same period.

The chair's main guidelines are:

- Implementation of research, development and innovation (R&D&I) projects.
- Dissemination the achieved results of chair activities.
- Development of learning programmes.
- Mutual advice in topics related to Indra and UC3M activity.
- Organization of common activities to broadcast and disseminate scientific culture and technical achievements.
- Any other within the availability limits of Indra and UC3M that may be considered of mutual interest within the context of the chair.

The chair's director is Professor Arturo Ribagorda Garnacho.
